

Hannaniah (Oliver) Pinto lived in Jerusalem, Israel from 1983 to 2004. He is an Israeli tour guide licensed in four languages. His teaching is focused on archaeology and the Jewish background of the Bible. He will help the group to understand the remains of biblical towns, connecting them to stories in the Bible in a new and exciting way. His recently published book: “Jesus’ Last Night with His Disciples, A Study of the First Century Historical and Archaeological Setting of the Last Supper” will provide many insights into our journey to Israel. He is the Co-Founder of the Biblical History Center, a museum featuring daily life in biblical times, headquartered in LaGrange, GA and co-leads tours to Israel, Jordan, Egypt, Turkey, Greece and Italy.

Tiffany Cobb first traveled to Israel in 1994 and returned home with a passion to take others to the Holy Land. Since then, she has helped lead multiple trips to Israel, prepping and training the teams for travel, walking with them through the land, and following up with Q&A upon returning to the U.S. Tiff is passionate about helping people understand the Bible within its cultural context, and nothing brings her more joy than watching their eyes light up as history, current events, and the Bible all come to life in the stunningly beautiful, complex, and fascinating land of Israel. Tiff and her husband, Jeff, live in Houston, TX, and have two children in college.
